Pallis	Marco	Letters to Marietta 1920-1955; Letters to Aziza 1943 & 2/3/4.1947 and to Andrea 19.2.47			c/f	Marco Box 1	Letters to Marietta include: observations about parents, and siblings & their dependents inc. PV, DN & APV; and letters while in Ladakh [with a digest on computer]. Letters to Aziza (& Andrea) mostly coincide with some of the later Marietta ones (arrival in India 1947). There are 8 letters; the first two (both to Aziza) may have been written in 1943 and one of these possibly from Switzerland?, (the other from Fulwood Park, Liverpool) They are both polemics about the destructive nature of Western civilisation, 'Tradition' and the Active Life. (Marco's book The Active Life was published in 1947 while he was in India (- see Letters to Marietta)). [Full transcriptions on computer.]
